Student: Maurice Young

Basic Audio Engineering - Chapter #10 Quiz

1. _____ are a set of software components that add capabilities to a larger software.
   Your Answer: Plugins

2. Time based effects are typically used on _____.
   Your Answer: an aux track with a send

3. AutoTune is made by:
   Your Answer: Antares

4. RTAS stands for:
   Your Answer: Real Time Audio Suite

5. TDM stands for:
   Your Answer: Time Division Multiplexing

6. The VST (Virtual Studio Technology) Plugin Format was developed by _____.
   Your Answer: Steinberg

7. The render button on an Audiosuite plugin:
   Your Answer: Renders the changes you have made to the audio file itself (and creates a new file in the clip list)

8. Pro Tools 11 has discontinued support of both _____ and _____ based signal processing.
   Your Answer: RTAS, TDM

9. Using an effect processor on a send allows you to:
Your Answer: All of the Above

10. Dynamic and frequency based processors are typically used on _____.
Your Answer: an insert

11. Audiosuite plugins save processing power by:
Your Answer: processing digital audio offline

12. You must have a clip selected to use Audiosuite plugins
Your Answer: True

13. A(n) _____ is a software component used to add capabilities to a larger host software.
Your Answer: Insert
Incorrect: Correct Answer is Plugin

Assignment Grade

Overall Grade: A

Instructor Notes:
92% (12 / 13)

Graded by: auto
Date Graded: 2016-07-26 06:53:07
Date Submitted: 2016-07-26 06:53:05