

Steven Hadrych III

February 24, 2016

Week 1 Assignment Part 1

1. Tied together by a series of events and clinging to life, four people lay unconscious and search for keys in their own minds/parallel world as the clock ticks down their survival. Together, the team of four must conquer the “purgatory” set before them and make it to the final destination to activate a portal to take them back home.
2. A man with a deep, criminal history learns he can take on the identity of whoever he murders. As he gets away with more crimes, the identities he take on begin to clash and blur together.
3. A theatre is haunted by a ghost of a previous attendee, as a team of detectives investigate the scene. Not completely buying the task set forth, the detectives document their search using video cameras and review their findings.