

Movie Ideas

1. Poverty raised musician with tremendous talent, yet alcoholic, drug addicted and misbehaved conduct. Youngster who struggles to pursue his gift due to his addictions and bad behavior, he must fight against all this and evolve for his future.

2. College baseball player who's on his last year of college, graduating and ready to take his talents to the next level in the professional league. After a car accident, his dreams are shattered and he's forced to take a different route. He decides to get in the drug selling industry, making him the top cocaine distributor in New York, things turn bad when envy and jealousy costs his mother's life, forcing him to seek out revenge.

3. A special agent is called for a top mission in the Middle East, a couple of Americans had been kidnapped and held hostage, all camera filmed and sent to the U.S as a threat. Agent X has the responsibility to get to the victims, safe them if he can, and gather information on what other threats they might be planning.