Five Year Plan

- 1 Year Goal - Save enough money to move to Los Angeles.
 - Short term goal - create enough income through various jobs to be able to live securely in Los Angeles while also looking for work.
 - Medium term goal - Work in LA while also being able to shop my screenplays around in hopes of them becoming produced.

- 2 Year Goal - Have a place to live in Los Angeles
 - Short term goal - get a job on a set as a production assistant or another type of film entry level job.
 - Medium term goal - Make connections with people I meet so I can find people who can guide me and also help me get my screenplay made into a feature film.

- 3 Year Goal - Sell my screenplay
 - Short term goal - Agree to have my screenplay made into a feature film.
 - Medium term goal - Have my screenplay submitted to film festivals and/or find any way to see it on a big screen.

- 4 Year Goal
 - Short term goal - Become recognized for my work as a writer and have a steady flow of work, finally making writing a full-time job.

- Medium term goal - Write another screenplay and hope to achieve success with that as well.

- 5 Year Goal - Have a screenplay be made into a big budget film.

- Short term goal - Keep writing and experimenting with new mediums such as television.

- Medium term goal - Be able to be a part of a film that is made to go straight to the silver screen rather than have it go through various festivals in order for it to be recognized.
