

Andre Correa

Chapter 19 - Preparation for Your Journey - Quiz

1- How did Orson Welles get his start?

Orson Welles started in the theater in United Kingdom. In an inheritance he gained from his passing father he made his way to Ireland where he started working in a local theater as director and actor.

2- What similarities are there between Orson Welles and Jerry Weintraub?

They're both extremely confident since the beginning. Taking advantage of the opportunities there were gave to them. They were not afraid to take some risks.

3- How was Jerry Weintraub hired at Warner Brothers?

While waiting for an interview to work as a P.A., he pretended he was the Development Executive that didn't showed up for the interview.

4- Aside from shaking hands confidently, what else can you do to convince people that you know what you're talking about?

You need to be confident, convincing, and to have good social skills. It's not really about the hand shaking by itself, but the combination of factors that makes you look a good professional or a intimidated amateur. The way you speak, in the right tone; the words you use; the way you dress and the way you behave will influence on the way people will study you.