

Chapter 20 Quiz

1. Do you have something specific in common with the agent or producer you'll be pitching to?

The producer I will be pitching to has done a lot of work in television, which is great because that is ultimately what I want to do.

2. What has your research told you about them?

My research has shown me that they should be good to work with. People seem to like them and they have a history in a part of the industry that I am very interested in. I am excited.

3. What are you doing to prepare for your meeting with a real Hollywood agent?

I have written a synopsis and a pitch and am continually going over my script, making sure I know it inside and out.

4. What do you think the most difficult part of this adventure will be?

The most difficult part of this adventure will be not stressing and remembering that no one knows my script better than I do, so I need to explain it simply yet thoroughly.
