

Ch.7 Quiz

Q.5

After being hurt continuously James decided to not fall in love again until he met a lady that he just had to be with. After a being together for three years James finds out his long-term girlfriend is leaving him as she felt he was to controlling and demanding. James being as hurt as he is decides to kill every man his ex girlfriend dates until she takes him back she tries her best to get away from him but he knows her every move even before she moves. She ends up tricking him in to taking him back but kills him brutally but kisses his corpse before leaving the crime scene.